Halal Authority Board

The Halal Certification Process

The Halal Authority Board audited our production facilities, when both approval and certification were given in December 2014. The development from initial concept has taken 14 months to complete, proving our commitment to food safety innovation. Hill Brush sourced Halal approved materials for use in production, which then involved modifications to the manufacturing process of our polypropylene supplier. Co-operation was crucial in certifying the range as Halal due to stringent supply chain requirements. Changes were also made to cleaning routines, equipment and staff conduct. The resulting range is compliant in every detail, from raw materials to the packaged product.
